Jung-hsiang

Pa-wen-chun

Members

Princes of the eighteen banners in Suiyuan Province (Banners of Ulan-chap and Ikechou Leagues, T'umot'e Banners, and the four banners in eastern Suiyuan)

(Peiping Note: Since all superintendents are princes they would automatically be included in the membership of this council, as well as those princes who are not heads of their banners.)

Organization and Training Section of Suiyuan Provincial Government

Head of the Section CHIA K'e-jang
in Ta Banner

(? Ordos Left Flank Rear Banner?)

(賈克讓)

Head of Office in FU Kuan-lan
T'aoliming

(傅觀瀾)

25X1 [] Note: It is not clear what this organization is, although []

25X1 [] this section controls all eighteen banners in Suiyuan.) []

25X1⁴. Most of the Mongolians in the Ulan-chap and Ikechou Leagues are against the policies and practices of FU Tso-yi. There are some exceptions to this such as K'ang-ta-to-erh-ch'i (Hantadorji), concurrently assistant chief of Ikechou League and superintendent of Ordos Left Flank Rear Banner. There are also two exceptions among the officials of Ulan-chap League. Pa-yun-ying, Urat Forward Banner Peace Preservation Commander and mother of the league superintendent, is the widow of a man put in power by FU. Consequently, she listens to FU's advice, and her son is under her control. Another official who favors FU is the Peace Preservation Commander of Urat Rear Banner, Ch'i-chun-feng, who is the mother of the banner superintendent, over whom she has control. Because of an intimate relationship between her and her Chief of Staff, a Chinese and former secretary to FU, she also listens to FU Tso-yi's advice.

25X1 [] Note: It was recently reported that the woman head of the Mongol Banner at West Paotou, Suiyuan Province, and her son, were murdered by a bandit leader. It is possible that reference is to Pa-yun-ying and her son, Kung-ko-se-leng of Urat Forward Banner (west of Paotou).
